

Certificate of Religious Dissent

To the Right Reverend Father in God
by divine permission the Lord Bishop of Bristol.

We whose names are underwritten do hereby certify that a certain building situate at Alderholt in the Parish of Cranbourne in the County of Dorset, in the diocese of Bristol, in the possession or occupation of James Fry, is intended forthwith to be used as a chapel for religious worship by Protestant Dissenters from the Church of England, of the denomination of Independents, under and by virtue of the Statute of the first year of King William and Queen Mary entitled “An Act for excepting their Majesties’ Protestant Subjects dissenting from the Church of England from the Penalties of certain Laws.” And also by virtue of the Statute of the fifty-second year of King George the Third entitled “An Act to repeal certain Acts and amend other Acts relating to Religious Worship and Assemblies, and Persons teaching or preaching therein &c.” And we request that this certificate may be registered in the Commissary’s Court of your Lordship.

Dated this Tenth day of December 1827.

Signatories

John Mayle	Archibald Duncan Joyce
-------------------	-------------------------------

Registrar’s signature

John Gould

Registrar’s attestation

I, Attimus Smith, Deputy Registrar of the Court of the Bishop of Bristol, do hereby certify that a Certificate of which the above is a true copy was this day delivered to me to be registered and recorded — pursuant to the Act of Parliament therein mentioned.

Dated

Eighth day of April 1828

Attimus Smith, Deputy Registrar